PASTOR J. Harry King of the Baptist church, Regina, recently complained of persecution of members of that faith in Regina, and said to a Leader reporter in course of an interview on the subject: "Another man whose name I do not at present care to mention was brought here by the Northwest government to fill an important scholastic position, and I know that because he was a Baptist and tried to gather the nucleus of a congregation of our denomination together he was compelled to leave. He afterwards wrote to that place and had him hounded away from there." "Because he was a Baptist?" "Well, yes! That had a great deal to do with it, I believe." Does anyone know the man?

WM. FOGLE, who arrived from Western Washington in March last, and who has spent some weeks in looking for land, called on the PULLITIN to say that he had travelled from Edmonton to Hay Lakes, Bittern Lake, Battle River and Dried Meat Lake, and returned by way of Wetaskiwin, and had found the country as good in every particular as it had been represented and in some respects better, particularly as to its adaptation in some localities for mixed farming. For this purpose he was particularly struck by the Hay lakes district, where he found wood, water and hay in the greatest abundance, and enough excellent farming land as well. He spoke very highly of the ridge which extends from Hay lakes to Battle River, about fifteen miles. The centre of the ridge is light and gravelly, but excellent for grazing, while on each side, close to the woods, the land is deep and rich. At Hay lakes he found Stephen C. Shields and family, who arrived from Palouse, Eastern Washington, this spring, located. Mr. Shields' three married sons who came with him, have also located there, and their friends, who will arrive from Palouse during the summer, will make a settlement of thirteen families, which will be sufficient to ensure a school. At Dried Meat Lake he found the country more suitable for extensive wheat raising, and nearly a township had been recently located in that vicinity. Mr. Fogle is well suited with the Edmonton district. It is good enough for him.

"CANADA'S Fertile Plains," is the title of a recently printed pamphlet of 80 pages which deals clearly and ably with the question of immigration to the Canadian Northwest, and describes the region. It is printed by the Model Printing Co., of Toronto. The author is Geo. B. Elliott, an old timer in Manitoba and the Northwest, whose experiences extended from Winnipeg to Calgary, and who is now a resident of Toronto. This is a valuable contribution to the literature of the day on the important question with which the pamphlet deals.

A Quebec dispatch says: The engagement is announced of Miss Debell, daughter of R. R. Debell, lumber merchant, to A. Stavelly Hill, Jr. The bride is the granddaughter of Senator McPherson, the niece of Lieutenant Kirkpatrick, of Ontario. The groom is a son of Sir Alex. Stavelly Hill, M. P., for Staffordshire, England, and a near friend of the Prince of Wales.

At a recent important race meeting at Cuttenburg, U. S. McAbee and Cavan's horse, Largetta, won over a field of eleven, against odds of 20 and 25 to 1. McAbee and Cavan, who are of Calgary, where the horse is well known, are supposed to have cleared $40,000. This firm got in trouble on the New Orleans race track, and will be watched still more closely in future.

A fatal case of cholera occurred at Hamburg, Germany, on May 16th.

A REPLY TO AN IMPORTANT QUESTION

Which is the best and cheapest Dry Goods Store in Town? is the question now frequently asked by the Settlers, who have recently arrived in this district. In answer to this important question, I would respectfully but emphatically reply, the GENERAL NEWS.

The C. P. R. will run a local daily train between Winnipeg and Moosehead after June 1st. The Free Press publishes a report that the Calgary and Kootenai Railway will be completed shortly.

Leithbridge News: Monday last was paid for the miners, and something over $19,000 was paid out to them on that afternoon.

Mrs. Jones, wife of a colored barber in Winnipeg, attempted suicide by drowning in the Red River on May 17th. This was her third attempt at suicide.

Maize: Gazette, May 19: The grain crop throughout the district is coming along finely, the indications for a remarkable yield this season being very promising.

John McCarthy and Wm. O'Brien, M. P., addressed a great meeting in London, Ont., on May 18th. They were heartily applauded and endorsed by formal resolution.

Hall, Leeson & Scott, of Calgary, have secured the contract for supplying the Nelson and Fort Sheppard camps with beef. It will require 1,000 head of cattle to supply the contract.

L. A. Hamilton, Land commissioner of the C. P. R., has returned from an extended visit to P. R. Interviewed by the Free Press, he said: "Considerable interest was being taken by the people in the northern countries of Europe in Canada, principally on account of the recently displayed by steamship agents, who receive a commission from the Dominion Government for every passenger booked for Canada. They however might not discriminate as judiciously as it is desired immigration agents should in whether the people reached here or not, fifty per cent. more immigrants for Canada left London this year to date, than there did one year ago, during the same period."

Canada has been amusing itself recently by a series of attacks upon Sir John Thompson's government for not being sufficiently Catholic. It winds up as follows: "To speak our sincere belief, we consider that the rights of Roman Catholics in Manitoba are irrevocably gone. They have been sacrificed by those who are in power. The French Canadian leaders of the day party, who should have guarded these rights, are most to blame. They should have been with all the devotion and vigor of which they are capable in protest against a violation of the solemn and sacred treaty. They weakened themselves by a and proved false to the trust which was reposed in them by their compatriots. They have allowed the constitution, their honor, and the peace and their promises, solemnly given to all, to be violated. English Conservatives are persecuting us, but it is our French brethren who betray us."

Rigors Standard: Nowithstanding the long experience of the Dominion government to bring people into Canada, practically nothing is being done through the government's authorized agencies to prevent an exodus from the Eastern provinces by which the Dominion is losing more people than it is receiving from abroad in the Western territories. If the new colonies of the Dominion are to be built, the exodus must be stopped. It is a serious situation, it is quite possible that unless it is stopped checked the census of 1901 will be even more disappointing, as regards increase of population, than that of 1891. The government says that even with this alarming exodus staring them in the face, they cannot put agents in the field in any Canadian province with the object of turning this migration in the direction of the Northwest, where the government owns tens of millions of acres of vacant lands calling for settlers. It is certainly carrying courtesy to the provinces to the extreme when the central government prefers to see tens of thousands of their people leaving yearly for the United States rather than step in to reason with them against their folly and direct their steps to a Canadian country that has free farms for all settlers a dollar to offer their sons and daughters. And it does seem only a reasonable suggestion that a government service of this kind, costing the country nothing, is quite as business-like a transaction as sending paid agents into the United States twenty years later to induce these same people to return to Canada.

SOUTH EDMONTON SPORTS.

The South Edmonton sports of yesterday were held in J. Walter's field west end of Whyte avenue, and were attended by about 400 people. The sports commenced at 1 p. m. sharp and were kept up briskly until evening. About $200 was paid out in prizes, the money being paid as soon as the event was decided. All disputes were settled by the judges at the time. All the events were well contested, particularly the pony race, the tug of war and the obstacle race. All events announced came off except the dog race. The tug of war, South Edmonton vs All Comers was won by the South Edmonton team captained by John Mackenzie, over the all comers team captained by F. Walker. The judges of the sports were: R. McKinnon, J. V. Killick and — Cosser. Of the horse races: W. Walker, — McGregor and McLane. — Tindale, starter. Everything passed off in good humor and everyone was well satisfied with the day's entertainment.

FOOTBALL MATCH.

Edmonton sports opened on Tuesday evening with a football match, Clover Bar vs Edmonton district, and resulted in a win for Clover Bar by one goal and four tries to nil. All tries were got pretty far out which accounts for the scarcity of goals. Each team played a man short. A very large attendance was on the field in addition, a good number of ladies who seemed to thoroughly enjoy the game. Both sides had to call in the assistance of two or three beginners. Edmonton was a little handicapped in this respect yet the beginners proved to be of the proper stuff for the game. Although every man played a good game, special mention may be made of Griffith at back and Creswell forward. The Clover Bar backs played a very fine passing game. The tries were got by W. S. Edmiston 1, L. Adamson 1, C. Bremner 1, F. Adamson 2, H. Edmiston, C. West and W. Fielders also got behind but no score was allowed. The teams were: Clover Bar—H. Hope back, A. Adamson, F. Cory, — White half backs, W. S. Edmiston J. F. Adamson, quarters, H. Edmiston captain, F. Mackee, L. Adamson, C. Bremner, F. Brane, W. Fielders, C. West, J. Williams, forwards. Edmonton—Griffith back, R. Hardisty, — Forbes, R. B. Nutt half backs, T. W. Chalmers, — Glover quarters, C. Young captain, — Creswell, Hall, G. Weigat, A. Pattison, D. Stewart, A. H. Goodwin, W. Patton forwards.

A REPLY TO AN IMPORTANT QUESTION

Which is the best and cheapest Dry Goods Store in Town? is the question now frequently asked by the Settlers, who have recently arrived in this district. In answer to this important question, I would respectfully but emphatically reply, the

MANCHESTER HOUSE.

Dealing as I do almost exclusively in Dry Goods, I have always on hand a larger and better assorted stock than any house in Town. Prices too are cut so fine, that it is frequently remarked by those who seek quotations "Why you are selling as cheap as they do down east, and in fact in some cases cheaper."

Many of the lines have been personally selected in the best English Markets.

ENTERTAINMENT.

The musical entertainment given on Tuesday night under the auspices of the Edmonton Fire Brigade Band was excellent, and was well attended, particularly considering that the weather was cool. The new band uniforms, to aid in purchasing which the subscription was given, made their first appearance that evening, and certainly are very neat and attractive. The orchestra comprised Mr. H. L. Adams, conductor, George Purches, leader, W. Mortimer, 1st violin; F. Kiel, 2nd; J. Flynn, flageolet; R. Hockley, cornet; Geo. Andrews, bassoon; F. Andrews, piano. To say that the music by the orchestra was superb is to do it scant justice. It was excellent to a degree that reflected the very highest credit on the performers, and gave the greatest possible pleasure to the audience. In the semi-circle were F.D. Fortin, interloper; A.H. Anthony, and W. Price, bones; J. Vanbuskirk and Jas. Lauder, tambos. The programme was as follows: Selections by the orchestra, "Bellman March," "Lighthouse by the Sea" and "Iron Horse Gallop;" Opening chorus, "The Rocky Mountain Lion," by the company; ballad, "If the Waters Could Speak as they Flow," J. R. Michael; End Song, "The Colored Band," Jas. Lauder; song, "The Song that Reached My Heart," E. Raymer; End Song, "Hear Dem Bells," W. Price; Ballad, "Playmates," A. G. Randall; End Song, "Jaw Bone," A. H. Anthony; Lullaby, "Rock-a-Bye-Baby," J. E. Graham; End Song, "Kiss Her on the Kisser," J. O. Vanbuskirk; Bass Song, "The Deathless Army," F. D. Fortin; Grand Finale, "The Hyko Kafir Band," by the company, encore. Intermission. Selection by the orchestra, "Up to Date Medley and Suspended Waltz;" Quartette, "Across the Bar," Messrs. Anthony, Raymer, Fortin and Graham; Clog Dance, J. O. Vanbuskirk, encore; Banjo Song, "Since Casey Runs the Flat," A. H. Anthony, encore; Orchestral Selection, "Sappho Gallop." "Fun in a Locomotive Asylum," an extravaganza, written expressly by Mr. George Purches, concluded the entertainment. The characters were: "Dr. Dorem," F. D. Fortin; Joe Johnsing (a much abused darkey), A. H. Anthony; "Mary Anderson" (F. D. Fortin) and "Dr. Keeley" (J. R. Michael), inmates of the asylum, and ghosts by the company. The piece ran from the extremes of comical to horrible and back again in one short act, and was well handled by the performers. Messrs. Fortin and Anthony were particularly funny, and Mr. Randall's get-up, as became his part, was hideous beyond description. The performance was good throughout, and where all did so well, it is, perhaps, not best to make comparisons, but, at any rate, the remark may be ventured that Mr. Fortin's singing and acting were even better than usual, because more spirited, and that Mr. Randall's rendering of "Playmates" was all that could be desired.

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY

Was celebrated in Edmonton by the usual athletic sports and horse racing. The day was fine but windy and slightly threatening about noon. In the morning and evening it was very fine. The attendance was small in the forenoon, but in the afternoon six or seven hundred people were out. Very few farmers were in town as most of them were still busy with their seeding, and anxious to make the most of this most favorable season. The presence of the Edmonton band and the fire brigade band, added very greatly to the attractions of the day. It is indeed seldom that a town no larger than Edmonton can boast of two brass bands, and still less frequent that an equal standard of musical excellence is reached. The games took place in the forenoon and the horse races in the afternoon. The prizes won amounted to about $250. Everything passed off pleasantly except that in the quarter mile pony race, W. Fielders horse threw its rider and O. Bellerose's horse did the same. Neither of the riders were injured.

The events and prizes were:

Putting 14 lb stone—W. R. Howey, 30 feet, 9 1/2 inches; 83; W. Howey, 34 feet, 3 inches, 82.

Putting 21 lb stone—W. Howey, 28 feet, 83; W. R. Howey, 27 feet 8 1/2 inches, 82.
